DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-36, 39 and 40, drawn to methods of obtaining site-specific gene replacement, classified in class 800, subclass 278.
 - II. Claims 37, 38, and 52, drawn to plants, classified in class 800 subclass 295.
 - III. Claims 40-51, drawn to methods of producing a transgenic plant, classified in class 800, subclass 278.
 - IV. Claims 53-66, drawn to a method of gene stacking, classified in class 800, subclass 278.
2. If Groups I-IV are elected, further election is required of the following, (A) – (F), and one of (a) – (e).

Irreversible Recombinase proteins

- (A) Phi C31 integrase.
- (B) Coliphage P4 recombinase.
- (C) Coliphage lambda recombinase.
- (D) Listeria U153 phage recombinase.
- (E) Listeria A118 phage recombinase.
- (F) Actinophage R4 Sre recombinase.

Reversible Recombinase Proteins

- (a) Cre.
- (b) FLP.
- (c) Gin.
- (d) R.
- (e) Beta.

3. If Groups I or IV are elected, further election is required of one of the following, (i) or (ii),

- (i) Mammalian cell.
- (ii) Plant cell.

4. Inventions (A)/(F), (a)/(e) and (i)/(ii) are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects—the two sets of enzymes have different catalytic properties and produce different products, and the Mammalian/Plant cells are complex, living, eukaryotic cells.

5. Inventions I, III, and IV are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects. These three methods use different starting materials, have different steps and produce different final products.

6. Inventions II and II are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process—the plants can be made by transformation with the final desired constructs.

7. Inventions I and II are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process—the plants can be made by transformation with the final desired constructs.

8. Inventions IV and II are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process—the plants can be made by transformation with the final desired constructs.

9. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, and the literature and sequence searches required for each of the Groups are not required for another of the Groups, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

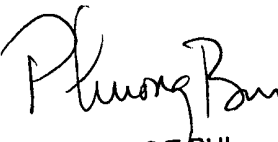

10. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

11. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
